THE AUTOMATIC ORGAN.

In presenting the AUTOMATIC ORGAN we boldly announce the greatest triumph in musical instruments of the age. During the past half century, the French and Germans have manufactured reed instruments with double bellows, and two pedals for the feet to operate; but the want of the reversed or EXHAUSTION BELLOWS, (which is the only bellows used in our instruments,) made it impossible for them to produce the mellow, rich and musical tone for which our instruments are celebrated

Another objection to this method of blowing was, that both feet being occupied no opportunity was offered for the management of the stops. Within the past two years, instruments constructed on this European plan of "double blowers" have been manufactured in this country, and to counteract this difficulty (want of a swell) a lever has been projected from the centre of the instrument, to accompany the swell, and operated by the knee The inconvenience and contortion necessary to effect this object, are disagreeable enough to a gentleman, but to a lady the use of such an appendage is nearly impossible.

Our AUTOMATIC device obviates this difficulty entirely, the simple act of blowing with more or less force, giving the desired increase or decrease in the volume of the tone We predict for this invention a brilliant future.

The Melodeon and School Organ.

For seventeen years the superior excellence of our Melodeons has not been questioned, and for two years past the enormous demand has made it impossible for us to meet our orders promptly. With our increased facilities we feel warranted in assuring our patrons that their orders will be promptly met, and solicit a continuance of their patronage.

Caution to Purchasers.

All of our instruments have upon the name boards in full, "GEO A. PRINCE & CO"—When a dealer represents any other instrument as 'the same as ours" it is usually a mere attempt to sell an inferior instrument on which he can make a larger profit.

MANHOOD.

IN THE YOUNG AND RISING GENeration, the vegetative powers of life are strong, but in a few years how often the pallid hue, the lack-lustre eye and emaciated form, and the impossibility of application to mental effort, show its baneful influence. Its soon becomes evident to the observer that some depressing influence is checking the development of the body. Consumption is talked of, and perhaps the youth is removed from school and sent into the country This is one of the worst movements. Removed from the ordinary diversions of the ever changing scenes of the city, the powers of the body too much enfeebled to give zest to healthful and rural exercise, thoughts are turned inwards upon themselves.

If the patient be a female, the approach of the menses is looked for with anxiety, as the first symptom in which Nature is to show her saving power in diffusing the circulation, and visiting the cheek with the bloom of health. Alas! increase of appetite has grown by what it fed on and the energies of the system are prostrated, and the whole economy is deranged. The beautiful and wonderful period in which body and mind undergo so fascinating a change from child to woman is looked for in vain; the parent's heart bleeds in anxiety, and fancies the grave but waiting for its victim.

HELMBOLD'S

FLUID EXTRACT

OF BUCHU

For Weakness arising from Excesses or Early Indiscretion,

Attended with the following symptoms:

Indisposition to Exertion, Loss of Power, Loss of Memory, Difficulty of Breathing, General Weakness, Horror of Disease, Weak Nerves, Trembling, Dreadful Horror of Death, Night Sweats, Cold Feet, Wakefulness, Dimness of Vision, Languor, Universal Lassitude of the Muscular System, Often Enormous Appetite with Dyspeptic Symptoms, Hot Hands, Flushing of the Body, Dryness of the Skin, Pallid Countenance and Eruptions on the Face, Pain in the Back, Heaviness of the Eyelids, Frequently Black Spots flying before the Eyes, with Temporary Suffusion and Loss of Sight, Want of Attention, Great Mobility, Restlessness, with Horror of Society. Nothing is more disirable to such Patients than Solitude and nothing they more dread for Fear of Themselves, no Repose of Manner, no Earnestness, no Speculation, but a hurried Transition from one question to another.

These Symptoms, if allowed to go on—which this Medicine invariably removes—soon follow Loss of Power, Futuity, and Epileptic Fits, in one of which the patient may expire

During the Superintendence of Dr. Wilson, at the Bloomingdale Asylum, this sad result occurred to two patients; reason had for a time left them, and both died of epilepsy. They were of both sexes, and about twenty years of age.

Who can say that these excesses are not frequently followed by those direful diseases Insanity and consumption? The records of the Insane Asylums, and the melancholy deaths by Consumption bear ample witness to the truth of these assertions. In Lunatic Asylums the most melancholy exhibition appears. The countenance is actually sodden and quite destitute—neither Mirth or Grief ever visits it. Should a sound of the voice occur, it is rarely articulate.

"With woeful measures wan Despair
Low sullen sounds his grief beguiled."

Whilst we regret the existence of the above diseases and symptoms, we are prepared to offer an invaluable gift of chemistry for the removal of the consequences—

DAILY NEWS.

WEDNESDAY, OCT. 3. 1866.

FOR GOVERNOR,

Jonathan Worth

OF RANDOLPH COUNTY.

Election Thursday, October 18th.

Vote for Worth, and thus endorse Andrew Johnson. If you vote for Dockery, you endorse Radicalism.
Goldsboro' News.

The following is the endorsement which Andrew Johnson gave to Jonathan Worth last November:—

"WASHINGTON, Nov. 27, 1865.

Hon. W. W. HOLDEN, Provisional Governor:

Accept my thanks for the noble and efficient manner in which you have discharged your duty as Provisional Governor. You will be sustained by the Government.

The results of the recent elections in North Carolina have greatly damaged the prospects of the State, in the restoration of its Governmental relations. Should the action and the spirit of the Legislature be in the same direction, it will greatly increase the mischief already done, and might be fatal.

It is hoped the action and spirit manifested by the Legislature will be so directed as rather to repair than increase the difficulties under which the State has already placed itself. ANDREW JOHNSON,
Pres. of the United States."

Mr. Johnson has not retracted nor even qualified the above. He holds the same opinions now he held then. Gov. Worth instead of having done anything to conciliate or please the President, has done all he could to displease and injure him, by ripping up and destroying his plan in North Carolina. Therefore, every citizen who may vote for Worth will vote to repudiate and condemn Andrew Johnson. Mr. Johnson says Gov. Worth and his adherents have "GREATLY DAMAGED" the cause of restoration in North Carolina. How then, can a person endorse Andrew Johnson by voting for Governor Worth?

Will the "News" be good enough to attempt to meet these points? Will it publish the above letter from the President?

Gen. Dockery is no radical. He is not even a member of the Republican party. He is simply a National Union Man. Gov. Worth has been in office nine months, and the State is further from being restored to the Union than it was when he was inaugurated. We shall never get back under him. Let us now try some one else. Let us try Gen. Dockery. Will the "News" attempt to give us some good reason why this should not be done?—Standard.

We have not the least objection to complying with the request of the "Standard," in publishing the letter of President Johnson—nor do we doubt the honesty of the President in making the assertions contained in said letter. We have no doubt, but, that, at the time of writing, Mr. Johnson really felt what he said; great changes have occurred since the 27th of Nov. 1865, for instance, new questions have arisen, and we find the President occupying quite different ground from the editor of the "Standard"—Gov. Holden is an advocate of the Howard Amendment, while the President is opposed to it—and therefore, Gov Holden is not with the President, but against his policy, and of course, "damaging the prospects of the State," in the estimation of the President. It occurs to us, then, that although Mr. Johnson has not re-called his declarations of regret, and his words of thanks to the Provisional Governor, it is no evidence that he approves of the opposition which Gov. Holden has set up against his policy. It is reasonable then to conclude, that the President would greatly modify a letter of thanks, were he to write now to Governor Holden. General Dockery having fallen into error, it is fair, then to suppose, that, as Gov. Worth is with the President, he [Gov. W.] is far more acceptable to Andrew Johnson, than he, who is adverse to his policy—and this, were Gen. Dockery a candidate, would be answer sufficient to the questions profounded to us by the "Standard."

But, Gen. Dockery is not a candidate; we have nothing to do with him.

But, for the sake of argument, we will give our reason for not supporting Gen. Dockery. Supposing him to be in the field: He has avowed himself a supporter of the equalization proposition of the Howard Amendment and in doing so, has arrayed himself in opposition to the President. This is enough!

Gov. Worth is with the President; he endorses his policy; and we have the pleasure of knowing, that he is in the confidence of the President, and that his influence with the President is quite as extensive as any other citizen of the State. All that talk about "ripping up," &c., is mere bosh; the people know better—and we trust the "Standard" will have its eyes open to the truth, and finally concede its mistake.

Will the "Standard" do us the favor to copy the whole of the above article into its columns? We ask it as a special kindness.

☞ General Dockery declines the nomination tendered him by the meeting which convened in Raleigh on the 20th ult. It will be remembered that we gave it as our opinion at the time, that he would not accept—we thought better things of the old gentleman.—Below, we give the correspondence; and the whole affair is truly amusing. In the first place, Fontelroy, (!) in a style peculiarly his own, puts on the plaster thick and strong; in return, the General knits his heavy brow, and gracefully declines to "walk into the parlour" so recently lighted by gas!

CORRESPONDENCE.

RALEIGH, Sept. 21, 1866.

To the Hon. Alfred Dockery:

DEAR SIR:—The undersigned were appointed a committee, by the Union Meeting held in Raleigh on yesterday, the 20th, to inform you of your nomination for the office of Governor of North Carolina, and to request your acceptance of the same.

You were selected without a dissenting voice as the most suitable citizen to represent the Union sentiment of North Carolina. The restoration of the Union was felt by the meeting to be the paramount, all-absorbing question of the day. We have no doubt you concur with us in this view, and we trust the resolutions adopted by the meeting will receive your approval.

With your assistance at the helm, the ship of State, though surrounded by breakers, on every side, will yet weather the storm, and reach the only safe haven for her people—the great national government founded by Washington.

Sincerely trusting, Sir, that you will accept the nomination thus tendered, and devote what time is left to canvassing public questions, we have the honor to be, with high respect. Your obedient servants.

J. F. TAYLOR, of Wake,
H. J. MENNINGER, of Craven,
E. T BLAIR, of Randolph. } Com.

RICHMOND COUNTY, Sept. 27, 1866.

Messrs. J. F. Taylor, H. J. Menninger, and E. T. Blair:

GENTLEMEN:—Yours of the 21st instant, by the hand of our friend Mr. Logan, has been received. Accept the assurances of my regard for this additional manifestation of trust and confidence reposed in me, by our friends assembled in Raleigh on the 20th instant, and my thanks for the very complimentary terms in which you have been pleased to make known to me the action of the meeting.

I regret, gentlemen, to say that after mature reflection, circumstances of a personal character, connected with the few days that will intervene before the day of election, precluding the possibility of even a partial canvass of the State compels me most respectfully to decline the candidacy tendered me by the meeting in Raleigh. Allow me, however, to assure you that the resolutions and most excellent address adopted by the meeting, in the main have my most cordial approval.

I greatly prefer the Howard amendment, with its reference of negro suffrage to our own Legislature, than to risk the next Congress, which, in all probability, will pass a much more stringent law upon that subject.

I also vastly prefer the restrictions upon office holders, about which the secession organs clamor so much, to more general proscription, with the confiscation of our lands, of which there is great danger, should the proposed amendment be rejected.

The argument in favor of immediate representation in Congress cannot be answered. As well might a General be expected to resist a well-appointed army, or storm a stronghold without soldiers, as for our interests in Congress to be defended until our members shall have been admitted. And as President Johnson and Secretary Seward, as well as the Congress, have repeatedly declared the test to be a pre-requisite condition of admission, the people ought to invite all our members elect who cannot comply with the required condition, to retire, and let others who can comply be elected, as an indispensable step towards harmony and restoration.

Most respectfully yours,
ALFRED DOCKERY.

MR. DAVIS.—The Charleston Courier of Sept. 28, says:

From a private letter which we have received from the estimable wife of the distinguished prisoner at Fortress Monroe, we learn with inexpressible regret that his health continues to decline, and that the pecuniary circumstances of his family are becoming embarrassing. Nothing is known to Mrs. Davis of the probable future of her husband, and we confess we see little encouragement to hope for his early release.

GOV. WORTH.

As we have announced elsewhere, Gen. Alfred Dockery has promptly declined the use of his name as a candidate for gubernatorirl honors. The field, then, is open—Gov. Worth has no opposition, and the people will be glad of this, as, in the present state of the country, unanimity is very desirable—and a united vote for Gov. Worth, will have its full force upon the minds, as well as the actions, of the destructives at the north. We do not propose to give additional reasons why we should act as one people now—the inference is easily drawn, and there are none so stupid as cannot see it at a glance. If we adopt the policy of the President, let us vote for his supporter, and thus give him strength at home, and show our appreciation of his self-sacrifice in our behalf.

Be not deceived. Be not led away by the wiles of the radical press.—Be not frightened from the polls by the threats of those, who, looking to self-preferment, are anxiously striving to build up a party at the sacrifice of the pride of the South.

DUCK TOWN, Sept. 15, 1866.

[Duck Town is situated at the corners of North Carolina, Georgia and Tennessee.]

Mr. Editor: Business at this place, is fast recovering from the effects of the war; capitalists engaged in working the extensive copper mines, are again at work. They are now said to have some 1500 hands employed. The prospects of at last obtaining rail road facilities are more favorable than at any previous time. The rail road to Cleveland authorized by the legislature of Tennessee, with liberal State aid, will be placed under contract, I am informed, as soon as it can be located. This secures the remaining link in the chain of roads which, when connected with the great North Carolina Central rail road, completes the rail road connection with Memphis on the Mississippi river, Little Rock on the Arkansas, and St. Diego and St. Francisco, on the Pacific Ocean—reported to be 2499 miles from Morehead City—the shortest and most favorable route, agreeably to the report of the engineers who surveyed three routes for the "Pacific Rail Road," that can be found from the Atlantic to the Pacific Ocean.

When the North Carolina rail road is completed to this place, North Carolina will have 550 miles in this great rail road on which, being shorter and cheaper than any other route, a bonus may be charged for the protection which the civil authority affords to through freight and travel, that will aid to pay for building the road, and afterwards relieve the people of the State from the payment of a large portion of the taxes they now have to pay. This forming one of the great lines of travel between Europe and Asia, including three-fourths of the inhabitants of the globe, affords the State the opportunity to tax the civilized world to pay for her internal improvements and build up her finances which will soon restore her credit.

That the State has the right to tax commerce and travel for these objects, that the federal government has to tax commerce and travel on the ocean, and for the same reason, as a consideration for the protection they receive while on transit, has been too long settled to need any explanation or argument.

The people of this place, as well as the entire west feel a deep interest in the consolidation of all the companies to Morehead city, which will save the cost and delay resulting from transhipment. They do not consider that the people of the east and west should be taxed 20 per cent. on their exports and imports, to the great injury of the business of the road, measurably owned by the State, to keep three sets of officers in office when the business can be transacted as well by one. The principle of taxing the many for the exclusive benefit of the few ought not to be continued. Besides, to secure the immense freights of mineral wealth of this place and western Carolina which seeks an outlet to the ocean, with the immense through travel that will pass over the road, transhipment must be avoided, and the sooner the better for the people of the State.

Radicals in the west who sympathise with the radicals of the north, who desire to disfranchise the whites to enfranchise the negroes, to enable them to place Genl. Lee, and a large portion of the brave officers and soldiers of the late Confederate army in a condition decidedly worse than serfdom or death, in direct violation of the terms agreed on when the Southern soldiers laid down their arms—like angel's visits, are few and far between. JUNIUS.

A Terror To Evil-Doers.—Judge Fowle is rightly pronounced one of the best Judges on the Superior Court bench in this State. He held Orange Superior Court week before last, and we learn from the Hillsboro Recorder that eight persons were whipped at the public whipping post four whites and four blacks. One white man, Wesley Watson, a notosious horse thief, was sentenced to receive 39 lashes forthwith, 39 at November term, and 39 on Wednesday of March court; and to remain in custody till all costs were paid. Two other white men, represented to be bad characters, were condemned to receive 39 lashes forthwith, to stand two hours in the stocks on the 26th day of November, to receive 39 lashes on the 27th of the same month, and to remain in custody till all costs are paid.

Pretty severe punishment, but just and necessary. Thieves who are prowling about the country should be severely dealt with.—Western Democrat.

LOCAL.

The following new advertisements appear in our columns to-day, to which we would call attention:

Davis & Hunter, have just received a large lot of Kerosine, Lamps, &c.

W. F. Pollock, Mt. Olive, N. C., advertises lost notes.

Finlayson & Bro., Wilmington, have established a General Commission and Forwarding House.

R. T. Fulghum has just returned with a new and well selected stock of goods. Read his new advertisements.

THE CANVASS.—To-day the canvass opens in good earnest between the candidates for the State Legislature and State Senate, from this county. There is no prospect of any wrangling on the political agitations of the day between them, and we are heartily glad to be able to say this.—Only two candidates have placed their names before the public for their suffrage—at least only two have advertised—and they are the only ones who have any right to expect to be elected, being both Johnson-Worth men. No one has as yet announced himself for the Senate.

PASSED THROUGH.—Wm. Wright Parker, charged, (in company with two accomplices who have since died in prison,) with the murder of William Childress, near Smith's creek N. C. some time since, passed through this place yesterday in charge of Officer Sellers for Wilmington N. C. where he will be tried for the crime.

COURT is still in session—the circus is coming—warm weather still continues—the freedmen show their ivory, and—the JR. editor is loafing through our main streets with a new hat on his head and a cigar in his mouth, both a present from some advertising merchant. The last our devil saw of him he was talking with a candidate for the Legislature near the "Derby." Look ont for 'snaix.' We expect to see his arrival chronicled in the Weldon State. Take care of him, friend Garner, if you should happen to find him.

FOR YOUNG MEN VISITING CHURCH.—When you enter, walk as heavily as you can, and after reaching your seat pay no attention to the minister, but rest your arm on the pew and gaze at the young ladies. Should they then not know you are there, spread your arms on the back of your seat, ask the gentleman next you for tobacco, and then see how loud you can spit. Of course every one will then turn around to see who you are and you will then have the satisfaction of knowing you are observed.—When hymns are being sung by the congregation sing bass yourself, by all means, if you do still retain your natural baby squeak about your voice, and do not know bass from tenor. That will add a new feature to the furore you have made, and should people show signs of disgust, don't take it as such as they only approve your conduct. We saw this did well last night.

SOME one in town carried on an indiscriminate shooting of fire-arms, last night, in the public streets to the endangering of the lives of persons who happened to be out in that vicinity. This is decidedly wrong, as it is against the rules and regulations of the town, and should be stopped. Have them ferreted out, Mr. B., and let them be punished.

MUSIC—whether on a brass band, piano or melodeon, we like very much to hear, especially when under the touch of an expert musician.—We even learned to play on a jews-harp in our boyhood's halcyon days, and were delighted with its strains. Vocal music is very nice also, but there is a certain style of vocal music that doesn't suit our fancy, and that is the me-low-dious strains of a cow that daily perambulates in the vicinity of our office. Gus don't like it either, as he remarked "that cow can out bleat the d——l."

FAMILY FEUDES.—A rich case of a family broil came off at the mayor's office yesterday between Wiley Bryant and Louisa, his wife, (both f. b's.,) who charged the said Wiley with beating, abusing and otherwise maltreating her. After hearing the case, Mr. B., who knows very well how to dispose of such cases, gave the parties a little admonintion and for fear they might forget again, added a fine of a simple 'V' greenback, legal tender, to jog their memory in their abscence and warn them to "love one another" in the future.

We are somewhat surprised that our cotemporary of the News should have no more veneration for old age than try to detract from it the number of years which entitle it to veneration. The error which he has, no doubt, inadvertently made, we would take occasion to correct. The Journal, instead of entering upon its fifteenth year, has entered upon its sixteenth.—Wilmington Journal.

We assure our cotemporary of the Journal that the error was inadvertent on our part, in the notice we made of its age. But its head is as black as ever, its color good and its form re(a)d as in days that have passed. May his days be prolonged to a still greater age.

Andrews, Bardin & Co., Wilmington, General Commission and Shipping Merchants. See advertisement.

The Gentleman at Church.—The following is worthy the attention of young people—old ones too—and we ask them to look around when in the house of God and see who among them can lay claim to the above title:

"1. Comes in good season, so as neither to interrupt the pastor nor congregation by a late arrival.

"2. Does not stop upon the steps or in the portico, either to gaze at the ladies, salute friends, or display his colloquial powers.

"3. Opens and shuts the door gently and deliberately, and lightly walks the aisle or gallery stairs, and gets his seat as quietly, and by making few persons move, as possible.

"4. Takes his place either in the back part of the seat, or steps out into the aisle when any one wishes to pass in, and never thinks of such a thing as making people crowd past him, while keeping his place in the seat.

"5. Is always attentive to strangers, and gives up his seat to such, seeking another for himself.

"6. Never, unless in the case of illness, gets up and goes out during the time of service. But if necessity compels him to do so, goes so quietly that his very manner is an apology for the act.

"7. Does not engage in conversation before the commencement of service.

"8. Does not whisper, or laugh, or eat fruit in the house of God, or lounge in that holy place.

"9. Does not rush out of the church like a trampling horse the moment the benediction is pronounced, but retires slowly, in a noiseless, quiet manner."

Generosusly Waiving the Civil Rights Bill.—A friend tells the following good story, which merits being put on record. A gentleman of this city, says the Charleston Courier, owning a large plantation on Santee, gave a good house, formerly the Overseer's, to a trusty negro, one of the superintendents of the estate. A whole family of white squaters, however, held possession of the house, and the freedman was debared from entering upon his rights. He went back to the planter, his late master, and complained, when the following dialogue ensued:

Planter—But, Pompey, the house is yours—you are lawful owner, and no one has any right to occupy it without your consent.

Pompey—Yes massa, I done tole em so. But he say he won't go.

Planter—Well, Pompey, suppose you go to the Freedman's Bureau, state your grievance, and apply for assistance to have this man ejected.

Pompey—(Scratching his head for some time, in an uneasy state of inability to make up his mind), No, sah, I can't do dat. I would'nt like to take advantage ob my own color!

A POCKET-BOOK STOLEN FROM THE HANDS OF A BANK MESSENGER.—Mr. Moses Cummings, employed as a messenger in the National Broadway Bank, left the Union Bank in Wall street yesterday, and proceeded up the street on his way to the bank in which he is employed. While in Wall street a man came suddenly behind him and, after a severe struggle, wrested from his hand a wallet containing United States gold certificates, bank checks, drafts, and treasury notes, amounting in the aggregate to $24,500, the property of the bank, which he had collected but a short time previous, and fled down the street, pursued by Mr. Cummings. Before the thief had run twenty yards he was interrupted by Mr. James Nelson, who despite his struggles, held him until Mr. Cummings came up. The prisoner had dropped the wallet upon the sidewalk. It was recovered with all the contents intact, and restored to Mr. Cummings. N. Y. Tribune, 26th.

DAILY NEWS,

GOLDSBORO' N. C.

W. & J. B. WHITAKER,
PROPRIETORS.

THE ONLY DAILY PAPER BETWEEN RALEIGH and NEWBERN, and WILMINGTON and PETERSBURG.

THE VERY BEST ADVERTISING MEDIUM IN THE STATE.

PUBLICATION RESUMED.

The publication of the Daily News, which was suspended on the 18th of May, on account of the total destruction of the office by fire, is resumed to day.

OUR DESIGN.

It is the aim of the publishers to make the paper all which its most sanguine friends desire it to be, a vehicle not only for the transmission of sound political doctrines but for the latest and most reliable news.

No efforts will be spared to place the Daily News in the front rank of the press of the State.

OUR LOCATION.

The central position of Goldsboro', the steady and constant stream of travel which flows through it, and the ease with which news is obtained, make it one of the most eligible points in the State for the publication of a first class newspaper.

MARKETS.

Special attention will be paid to secure the most reliable reports from New York, Baltimore, Wilmington and Newbern, in addition to our Telegraphic Dispatches.

EDITORIAL DEPARTMENT.

The editor will endeavor to make this Department sound and conservative; but believing that the readers of a daily Journal greatly prefer having the latest news to any long drawn out editorials, he will seek to make his "strength by rather than lengthy," filling the limited space at his disposal with items of interest and value.

LOCAL COLUMN.

Attention will be paid to the Local Department. Items of interest for this column are solicited,—if left on our table, and are found to be unobjectionable, they will promptly appear in appropriate garb.

ADVERTISING MEDIUM.

No paper in the State offers to advertisers a better medium for the circulation of information relative to goods, wares, or merchandise, real or personal estate, which they may have for sale, or which they may desire to purchase.

FOR THE LAST FORTY YEARS,

PROSPECTUS
WEEKLY NEWBERN COMMERCIAL.

JOHN SPELMAN, Editor and Proprietor.

Terms Two Dollars a year—Invariably in Advance.

ON Thursday morning, the 20th instant the first number of the "WEEKLY NEWBERN COMMERCIAL" will be issued, and the publication will be continued on every succeeding Thursday morning.

The publication of the Weekly has been delayed for want of mail facilities, but now the undersigned feels warranted in issuing the Weekly.

The "Weekly Commercial" will give a hearty support to President Johnson and his magnanimous policy of restoration.—It will also support the re-election of Gov. Worth. It will be uncompromisingly opposed to Radicals and Radicalism. It will advocate strict economy in the administration of the National and State Governments. It will oppose excessive taxation beyond what is necessary for the decent and necessary expenses of the National and State Governments. It will sustain all who aid in the development of our resources and in the diffusion of knowledge and the general advancement of education.

The "Weekly Commercial" will be a good newspaper, and will contain the latest intelligence from all parts of the world by land and ocean telegraph.

The undersigned deems it unnecessary to make any further professions. He has had long experience in the newspaper business, and is well known throughout the State.

He appeals to his friends everywhere to assist him in the circulation of his paper. Having stood firmly by the Confederacy till the very last, he has emerged from the war in poverty, like all others, who did their duty.

TO THE WOMEN OF THE SOUTH.

The end we propose is the cause of the South. It has neither party, nor section, nor division. The obligations of the survivors to the memory of the martyrs of the war address the South as one family, wherein, though there will be degrees of affliction and bereavement, none are without sorrow and grief. It is not, however, to hearts crushed by personal sorrows so much as to gratitude cherished for noble deeds by noble men, we appeal. With this the southern heart throbs with one impulse, and is ready to testify its inextinguishable sympathy.

It shall be our endeavor to rescue from the oblivion to which they are passing the graves of the great host which perished in the war, and sleep undistinguished in our cemetery. Their memory, history will transmit from age to age, propounding without number illustrious examples from which the noblest of every age may catch new inspiration. We propose the humbler tribute yet the more touching to relatives and friends, and even to the general heart,—that of identifying with durable monuments the ground where sleep the honored dead—tempting thither by its becoming habitude the countless throng, who would do homage to such dead. Our designation is "Hollywood Memorial Association of Richmond"—pledged to apply the means which may be provided to the permanent protection and adornment of the graves of the Confederate dead interred in Hollywood Cemetery. Those contributing to the association will be enrolled as members; and contributions may be remitted to the Treasurer, Mrs. CHAS. G BARNEY, Box 810; and letters addressed to the Corresponding Secretary, Mrs. DR. JAS. BOLTON. Information will be furnished at all times by the President and by any member of the Memorial Committee.

There is but one thing left us, as a people, which no enemy's hand can wrench from us:—"The memory of the Past"—Let us then keep bright the most precious jewel in our crown of sorrow"—the graves of our glorious dead. Let a people's gratitude lay immortal laurels o'er

"The sacred grave
Of those who vainly brave
Died for the land they could not save."

Virginia calls to us to assist her in the sad pleasure of perpetuating the memory of our fallen, in the eyes of the world, by erecting fitting monuments in Hollywood Cemetery, at Richmond. The work is one in which every Southern woman should delight to do her best.

I appeal to the women of North Carolina to come forward and aid their sister State, in paying the last tribute to the defenders of our "Lost Cause," remembering with feelings of just pride, that thousands of our heroic soldiers sleep well on the soil of Virginia.

I shall take pleasure in forwarding to the Treasurer of the Hollywood Memorial Association, any contributions I may receive for this purpose.

☞ All contributions will be acknowledged through the columns of the Goldsboro' Daily News.

Perpetual Calendar

"A CALENDAR FOR THE CHRISTian Era, combining the Julian and Gregorian modes of reckoning time, by James Rumley, of N. C."

Copyright Secured.

The subscriber having copy righted this most valuable of all the "Calendars" ever presented to the public, is prepared to supply the demand for them to any extent.

Previous Efforts.

Many attempts have been made, from time to time, to secure a Calendar by which all the dates of the Christian Era could be accurately and at the same time readily, found. These attempts have heretofore signally failed, because the authors have sought to condense too much, and because they are really not conversant with the subject of which they treated, and which they vainly endeavored to elucidate.

What I claim.

I claim for the Calender, now presented, perfect simplicity of arrangement, combined with the most infallible accuracy. The plan is so simple that any one who can use an ordinary Almanac, or Counting House Calendar, cannot fail to see clearly into the working of this. Time past, present or future can be immediately found.—Its accuracy will bear the test of the most rigid scrutiny. I invite criticisms, and confidently appeal to an enlightened public judgment for a frank expression of opinion as to its merits.

Supplies a Want.

To supply a want long felt, the author has appended to the Calendar, under the head of "Explanatory Remarks," a succinct, but most valuable history of the Julian Calendar from the time of Julius Cæsar, and of the astronomical causes which led to the change made by Pope Gregory XIII, in 1582 These notes alone are worth the price of the Calendar.

OBJECTIONS ANSWERED.

If any object to the space the Calendar occupies, the objection is answered by the reply that any attempt at condensation would be a sacrifice of simplicity, the fatal rock on which every previous attempt has been wrecked.

WHO SHOULD HAVE IT.

Every professional man, every mechanic and farmer, all merchants and tradesmen should supply themselves with copies at once.

TESTIMONIALS.

One of the first mathematical minds of this country, Prof. Charles Phillips of the University of North Carolina, thus speaks of the Calendar:

UNIVERSITY OF N C.
Thursday, June 21, 1866

COL. S. D. POOL,

Dear Sir

I thank you for the pleasure I have had in examining your perpetual Calendar. It is a thing of beauty—simple, extensive and accurate. Every one who refers to dates ought to have a copy of it; the man of business, for the present; the student of history, for the past; and the dabbler in prophecy for the future. To use it, with readiness and precision, one needs only brain enough to remember the year,—the month of the year,—the week of the month and the day of the week and this is about as little brain as one can get along with in these times. I found out at once some things I did not know before, viz: that the 4th July 1776 happened on Thursday, and that the 4th of July 1876 will happen on Tuesday. Also, I was born on Thursday—a truth that is not in the family Bible. I am afraid you will never be paid for your trouble for if the thing wont wear out, it wont get out of date.

Again I thank you for my Measure,
Your Respectfully
CHARLES PHILLIPS.

Gov. Swain, President of the University says: "he entirely concurs with Prof Phillips in the views he entertains concerning the value of your Almanac."

The Newbern Commercial having thoroughly examined the Calendar thus writes of it:

A CURIOUS CALENDAR.—We have received from our esteemed cotemporary, Col. S. D. Pool, of the Goldsboro' News, a most simple yet erudite chart, entitled "A Calendar of Dates for the Christian Era, Combining the Julian and Gregorian Modes of Reckoning time." At the request of Col Pool, who is the proprietor of this unique production, we have carefully examined it, and find it to be one of the least pretentious and most curious publications of the day. By its use we can readily find, by the Gregorian, or New Style, the day of the week, answering to any given day of the month, or the day of the month answering to any given day of the week, from the year 1000 to any future period, while the Gregorian calendar remains unaltered; and can find thesame by the Julian, or Old Style, in any former year of our era or in any year to come.

The Dominical letters of the Julian calendar are introduced into the table, because that calendar was in use in this country and Great Britain until September, 1752, and was in use in Christian countries until those countries adopted the Gregorian calendar, and actually is now in use in Russia. Although we have the inclination, we have not space to speak of this excellent chart as we would like, but we will say that the established reputation of Col. Pool, as a superior scholar, will not suffer by its publication under his auspices

The author is Mr. James Rumley, of Beaufort, N. C., who, during the war, undertook its production as a labor of love, and presented it to his friend, Col. Pool, as a token of his friendship and esteem. The price is fifty cents, and it is for sale by Col Pool

Numerous other testimonials to the value of this ingenious, scientific and valuable work could be adduced, if necessary; but we deem the above sufficient to bring it to the attention of the public. When once examined its merits are at once disclosed.

PRICE.

On Large cards 10x14, neatly printed, for Counting room, Office, or Library: Fifty cents per single copy; Four dollars for ten copies; Thirty five dollars per hundred.

AGENTS WANTED.

I desire to secure agents for every State, city and county in the United States.
